PROJECTED RETURNS

In addition, HMRC considers whisky casks to be wasting chattel, and so your investment is exempt from Capital Gains Tax (CGT)

PASSIVE INVESTMENT

A family of three, a mother, a father, and a young child, are running barefoot on a sandy beach. The mother is on the left, the father is on the right, and the child is in the middle, being held up by both parents. They are all smiling and appear to be enjoying their time. The background shows the ocean and a clear sky. The entire image is overlaid with a blue gradient, and the title 'PASSIVE INVESTMENT' is written in white capital letters in the top left corner.

Whisky increases as it ages so you can sit, back and let the whisky work for you.

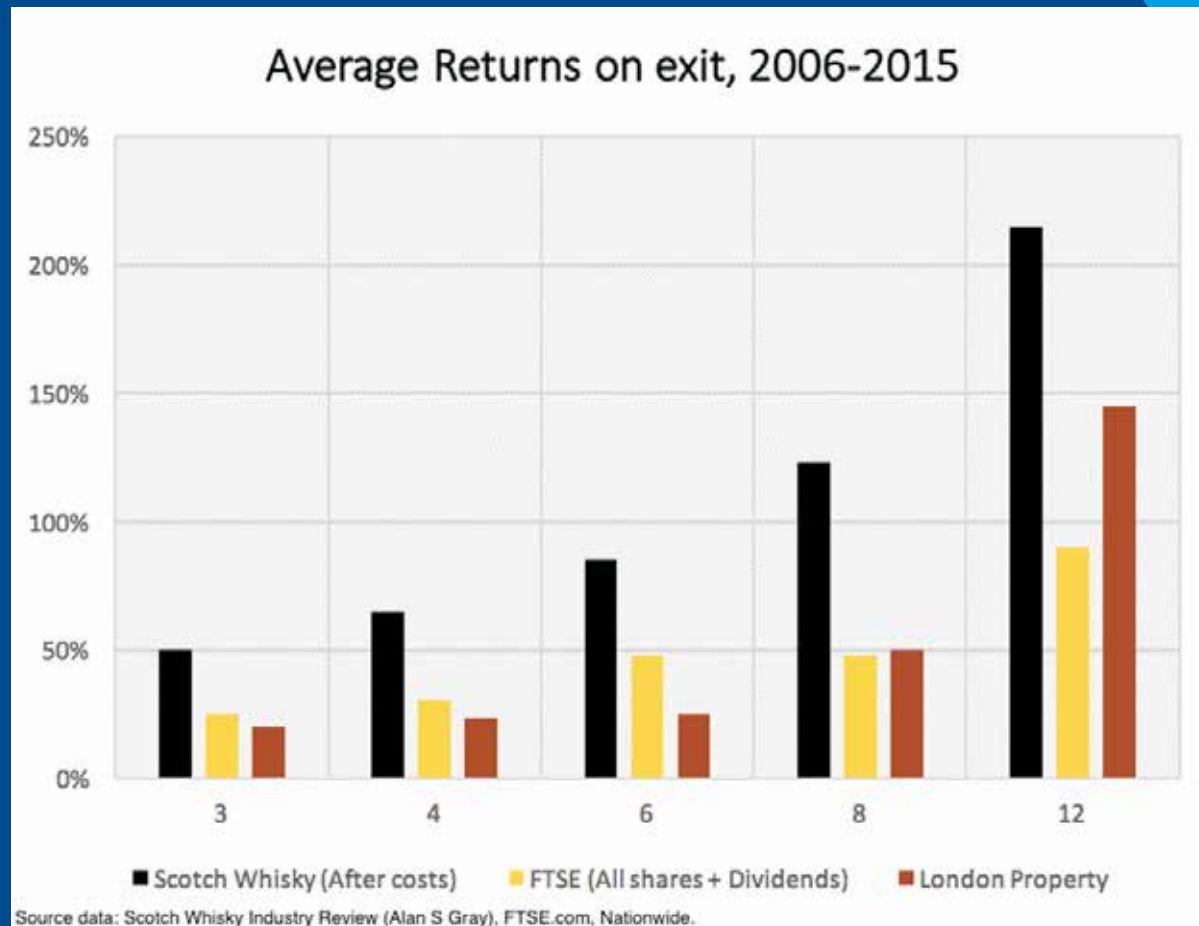

WHY SCOTCH WHISKY?

-  Global demand for Scotch whisky continues to rise, while the number of casks continues to fall
-  Only 15% of casks in Scotland are 5 years or older
-  The Scotch whisky market is worth over £4.95bn
-  93% of Scotch whisky is exported to over 200 global markets
